

Student: _____ Date: _____

Worksheet 2A

Connecting Sentences Using AND...TOO and AND SO

Instructions: Connect these sentences using and in a sentence that also has the word too. Then use and so to create a sentence with the same meaning. The first one has been done for you.

1. Tom is eating. Linda is eating.

Tom is eating, and Linda is too.

Tom is eating, and so is Linda.

2. Randy likes to play football. Sarah likes to play football.

3. Carlos writes books. Lisa writes books.

4. The teacher was reading. The student was reading.

5. The movie is long. The concert is long.

6. Bob likes to smile. Karen likes to smile.

Student: _____ Date: _____

Worksheet 5A

Pick the Best Word: IF or UNLESS

Instructions: Fill in the blank in each sentence with one of the conjunctions below.

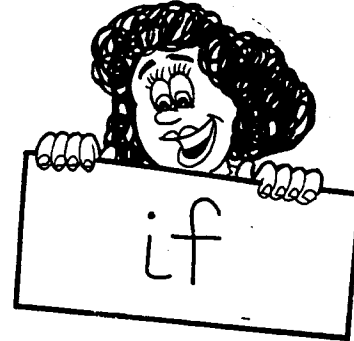

Sample sentence

if

Tom will come if he is paid.

unless

Tom won't come unless he is paid.

- We don't have any bread. I will make a sandwich _____ you buy bread.
- Andy has a flat tire. He can't drive his car _____ his tire is replaced.
- Marty is feeling sick. She shouldn't go to work _____ she is healthy.
- The boy lost his pen. He won't find it _____ he looks in the office.
- The chef will cook spaghetti if many people need to be served. He won't cook _____ fifty or more people come to the party.
- I sing when I am not busy. I will sing tomorrow _____ I have time.
- Clean the floor if you see dirt on it. The floor should not be cleaned _____ it is dirty.
- The dog runs only when Tom throws the ball. The dog will not run _____ Lisa throws the ball.
- I bought a new radio to listen to music. Don't turn on the radio _____ you want to listen to music.
- We have food in the refrigerator. Open the refrigerator _____ you want to look inside.
- Dan has no milk at home. He should go to the store _____ he needs milk.
- You need to say something very funny to get Carlos to laugh. Carlos won't laugh _____ you say something very funny.