

Activity 1.17: Reporting Relevant Information

Name: _____ Date: _____
Copyright © 1993 by Academic Communication Associates. This worksheet may be reproduced.

Instructions: A witness should report the most important information first. For each of the situations described below, find the statement that is most relevant and put a check mark in the space beside that statement. Then add one more sentence of important information.

1. Someone is reporting a car accident in front of a house.

A. One car is blue and one car is red.

B. The cars hit head-on and the people are still in the cars.

2. Someone is reporting a fire across the street.

A. I can see smoke from the first floor windows.

B. The house is three stories tall.

3. Someone is reporting a possible break-in across the street.

A. I am eight years old.

B. The address is 1520 Willow Street.

4. Someone is reporting that an older woman fell down on the sidewalk.

A. The sidewalk is on Elm Street.

B. The woman is wearing a pink dress.

5. Someone is reporting a baby choking on a penny.

A. I'm all alone!

B. The baby is coughing and turning blue.

Activity 2.2: Worksheet 5- Sparky the Bully

Name: _____ Date: _____
Copyright © 1993 by Academic Communication Associates. This worksheet may be reproduced.

The carnival was in town again! Juan and Maria were so excited to go on the rides and to eat cotton candy. Their mother dropped them off and said that she would pick them up in two hours.

"Have fun!" she said.

Maria and Juan decided to go on the roller coaster first. The line at the roller coaster was long, but they thought that the wait was worth it. Many people were in line behind them. All of a sudden someone pushed Juan. He turned around and saw a big, mean-looking guy. Juan was brave enough to say, "Please don't push me."

The big guy smirked at Juan and said, "My name is Sparky and I can push anyone I want!"

Luckily, it was Maria and Juan's turn to ride the roller coaster. After the ride was over, Maria said, "I think we should tell someone about Sparky. He is mean!" So Maria and Juan walked over to the security guard and told him about Sparky.

Describe Sparky using statements that are SPECIFIC.
