

Short Story 4- Karen Goes Shopping

Mother wanted Karen to go to the store after school to buy food for a party. She listed four things that she wanted Karen to buy. Karen took the list but had trouble reading the last word. She asked a girl to help her read the word. The girl looked at the word butter and told Karen that she was supposed to buy root beer.

Student: _____ Date: _____
Reproducible Answer Form- Copyright © 1989 by Academic Communication Associates.

Instructions: Read the story below. Then ask the child to perform each of the tasks listed below the story.

Short Story 4- Karen Goes Shopping

Mother wanted Karen to go to the store after school to buy food for a party. She listed four things that she wanted Karen to buy. Karen took the list but had trouble reading the last word. She asked a girl to help her read the word. The girl looked at the word butter and told Karen that she was supposed to buy root beer.

1. Ask a question about the story using the word who.

2. Ask a question about the story, using the words what and food.

3. Ask a question about the story using the word where.

4. Ask a question about the story using the word when.

5. Ask a question about Karen, the girl in the story, using the word why.

6. Think of two questions that Karen could have asked her mother before leaving for the store.

