

When the blimp landed in America, the children followed Alvis as he went all over town singing songs. Everyone loved Alvis, and everyone wanted to hear him sing.

Radio stations everywhere started to play songs created by Alvis the Elephant. Then Alvis was asked to give a concert at a place in the woods called Woodstack. Over one million people bought tickets to hear Alvis perform at the Woodstack Concert.

1. What songs did the radio stations start to play after Alvis landed in America.
2. Why were people buying tickets?

Everyone smiled while Alvis sang at the Woodstock Concert. He sang songs about how important it is to be kind to all people and animals. Everyone loved his music, and he became the most famous singer who had ever lived. Alvis the Elephant will be remembered forever for being so good to others and for playing such beautiful music.

1. What happened when Alvis the Elephant sang at the Woodstock Concert?
2. Why will Alvis be remembered forever?