Situation 11

Respecting Others

Children need to show respect for others. Explain why it is bad to tease other children and what children should do if they are teased.

Every day David teased someone in his class. He liked to be a mean bully.

Today he is teasing Mary. He is pulling Mary's hair. "Hey, Blondie, how does this feel?" said David as he tugged on Mary's hair.

Mary was caught by surprise. She didn't know what to say or do. She just walked away when David let go of her hair. She was very mad. Mary decided to tell the teacher about what David had done.

The teacher made David apologize to Mary for pulling her hair. David also had to write "I will never touch Mary again" one hundred times.

1. Do you think Mary should have said something to David?

Volunteering to Help

Sometimes people need help. Discuss the importance of helping others and situations in which it is appropriate to offer help.

Greg was rushing to his class when he slipped. All of his books fell to the floor.

Leticia saw that Greg could use her help. She stopped and helped Greg with his books. She was glad that she could help.

“Thank you so much for helping me,” said Greg. “You are a very kind person.”

1. If Greg had asked for help, what do you think he would have said?
